

Beecher Square Pricing Sheet

Beecher Square is made possible by a membership housing model whereby residents contribute an entrance fee which is fully refundable upon move-out and releasing of the unit. The entrance fee is not only a source of development funding, but it also allows us to provide higher levels of services and amenities for our residents.

Step up at this early stage of the development to lock in your perfectly-sized, comfortable apartment in a brand new building which offers maintenance-free living with support services available if you need them.
